THE WIVES OF STRIKERS.

THEY TAKE A HAND IN THE BIG STRIKE AT DE ARMITT'S.

Doing Missionary Work Among the Miners--President Debs' Sen- sational Charge.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 6.—The Coal Company has discovered a new sort of missionary work among their employees. The wives of many of the campers have been arriving for several days. Twenty of them are scattered through the Plum, Sandy and Turtle Creek settlements, from McDonald, Carnegie and Wheeling division of the sections. While the men are at work the strikers' women do missionary work among their wives. The wives of the strikers have access to the workmen's houses, but the strikers themselves are denied this privilege, hence the resort to this ruse.

Deputies are stationed all along the line of the company's property with instructions not to allow men to pass into the houses. The campers claim that in a few days the effects of this female missionary work will be apparent. Many of the Plum Creek men are expected to join the movement after pay Monday. The strikers say they would be out now but for the fact that they wish to get as much money ahead as possible, so that they may have something to fall back on.

Debs left today for Turtle Creek, where he will address a meeting this evening. Before leaving he strongly denounced Judge Jackson, of West Virginia, for issuing the injunction restraining him from, in any way, interfering with the Monongah company or their employees.

With reference to the charge that the deputies now on the grounds are forcing the miners to work at the point of revolvers, President Dolan said that the matter had been placed in the hands of their attorneys and that the miner's officials would probably go into court and ask for an injunction restraining these deputies.

The prices of coal are already advanced ten cents since yesterday; the reason assigned for this is that the area of the strike will probably expand so as to embrace the northern and central Pennsylvania districts. Coal is now being hoarded for possible future demands, when prices will be still higher than they are now. The ruling price is a dollar and ten cents for run of the mine in barges or cars, and five or six cents per bushel for the stock in the rivers.

$125,000 Assignment.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Davidson & Bros., leaf tobacco dealers, have assigned to Milton S. Guiterman, without preference. The amount involved is said to be about $125,000. Losses sustained by experiments in machines for all tobacco cigarettes are said to have caused the failure.

The Commercial Union Cigar & Cigarette Company assigned to Adolph Myer without preference. Liabilities, about $35,000.

Hurst's Victim Improving.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CINCINNATI, August 6.—The condition of the fireman, who was hit by a beer glass thrown by Umpire Hurst, is much improved today.

Rubber Works Burned.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

DANVERSPORT, Mass., Aug. 6.—The Danversport Rubber Works burned to the ground this morning. The loss is thirty-five thousand dollars.

Severely Injured.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—While fighting fire at East 125th street this morning, Captain Eugene Turpney and Fireman
Sheridan, were severely injured.

We are glad to state that Tom Matthews, who was threatened with fever, is improved.

THE COLORED COLLECTOR.

Rucker Inducted Into Office—Ten Dep- uties Go With Their White Chief.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 6.—Henry A.
Rucker, the new collector of internal revenue, went into office last night with rather unusual ceremonies. When he met with his predecessor to effect the transfer of the office he found a large gathering of deputies who presented Mr. Trammel with a very handsome silver service.

Speeches were made, closing with one by Rucker, whose fair words and temperate tone pleased his hearers.
Realizing the embarrassment ahead of him, Rucker asked the support of all the deputies, assuring them that they should have his as long as they were in service. His speech was a reassuring one.

Ten of the deputies handed in their resignations and went out with their white chief.

Strikers Trip the Light Fantastic.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—There does not appear to be much distress among the striking pants makers. The kneep-ants makers congregate in their Hall and dance from noon till night. They seem to think they are having a vacation. Eighteen contracts were signed yesterday and a few more today; this gives evidence that the strike will be speedily settled.

Over a thousand of the twenty-three hundred pants makers returned to work today. Ninety-five of the contractors have signed up to date, which leaves only thirty more.

BOILER AND ENGINE IN PLACE.

Work Out at the Silk Mill Moving Along—Water to be Turned On.

A TELEGRAM man went out to the silk mill this morning and found everything around the mill moving along briskly. A force of hands is busily engaged putting up the machinery and getting everything in working order.

The large 120 horse-power boiler and the 80 horse-power Westinghouse engine have been placed in position.
Water will be turned on to-morrow to test the boiler.

The managers telegraphed for a car load of coal to-day. This looks like business.

The Peripatetic Club to Go.

The members of the Peripatetic Reading Club, with some of their friends will have a special car on Young's excursion train to Wilmington reserved for their exclusive use. This will be a nice outing for the members of the club, and no doubt many of them will avail themselves of the opportunity of the trip. The usual extra charge of fifty cents for reserved seats will not be made on this occasion.

The committee of arrangements is composed of Messrs. Charles Weaver, Charles Andrews and Charles Murray.

Thanks to the C. F. and V. V.

EDITOR TELEGRAM:—I desire to return thanks in behalf of the Greensboro fire department, to the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway for the very satisfactory way in which they handled our firemen and visitors during the Tournament at Fayetteville.
The service was all that could have been asked, and I desire especially to thank Mr. J. C. Murchison, the efficient Master of Trains, for his many kindnesses shown us.

ken here yesterday morning was sent train.

Encouraging.

The committee of the Industrial and Immigration Association appointed to solicit members report encouraging results. Let the good work go on.

By the way, in our article on the Southern Varnish Company yesterday we forgot to mention the fact that this company was induced to locate here directly through the efforts of the I.

Winston Sentinel: The train from Greensboro last night was late getting in. The delay was caused by the engine breaking down this side of Kernersville, and a man had to be sent to Winston after assistance.

A SUIT AGAINST THE CITY.

THE CASE IS NOW BEING HEARD BEFORE JUDGE McIVER.

John W. Thomas Wants $10,000 for Injuries Received in 1894— Conflicting Testimony.

The case of John W. Thomas against the city of Greensboro for $10,000 damage for injuries alleged to have been received in March 1894 is having a hearing before Judge Mc-Iver. The time has thus far been taken up with empanelling the jury, there being some difficulty in securing one satisfactory to counsel, and with the evidence, which is not all in. The case for the plaintiff states that in March 1894 he fell from a horse-wagon on South Elm Street, while going to a fire at Gen. Glenn's stable; that the fall was due to the street at that point.
The counsel in the case are; for plaintiff, Boyd & Brooks, R. R. King, Shaw & Scales; for defendant, J. A.
Barringer, D. Schenck, Jr., and
Maj. Charles M. Steadman.

The evidence for the plaintiff showed that the city had been grading the hill on S. Elm street, near the water tower, and using the dirt to fill in the hollow beyond; that the city had dumped the dirt from the carts and left it in piles without spreading it out. That by reason of this the defendant was thrown from the rear step of the horse wagon on which he was standing.

Officer Scott testified that he found Thomas lying in the road and helped to carry him home. Dr. Michaux stated that he was summoned to attend the injured man and found him in great pain and that he had several bruises.
He further testified that some weeks later he prescribed for Thomas for rheumatism. Two negroes testified that the holes in the road at the point where the accident occurred were knee deep.

Mr. Thomas' son testified that his father was in bed for 7 or 8 months and was compelled to use crutches for several months afterward.

Mr. Crutchfield, for the defendant, testified that he was in the horse wagon at the time that Mr. Thomas fell from it; that after reaching the plug and attaching the hose, he went back and found Thomas standing in the road some 50 yards back. He further testified that he was secretary of the fire company of which Thomas was a member and that Thomas attended and took an active part in the tournament at Winston in August, after the accident happened, and in all subsequent tournaments.

The line of defense is contributory negligence and the evidence for the city is not all in.

Suing the Railroad.

About a year ago Mr. James O.
Lambeth, of Brown Summit, got on the train at Reidsville to return home.
For some cause he did not purchase a ticket, but handed the conductor the money to pay his fare. The conductor, according to a rule of the company, refused to take the money unless he paid ten cents extra. This Mr. Lambeth refused to do. Then he was put off the train, and now he is bringing suit against the Southern Railroad Company to recover damages.

The case is now being argued in the court house, Fab. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, and Colonel Boyd appearing for the railroad, and Colonel Morehead and John N. Wilson appearing for the plaintiff.

MAKING EXCUSES.

Mr. Lee Tells of Some of the Excuses Sinners Make.

Evangelist Lee had a fairly good crowd to hear him last night, though not so large as on former occasions.
The threatening weather kept many away. Mr. Lee chose as his subject "Excuses," taking his text from the parable of the wedding supper.

He occupied a good portion of his sermon in denouncing the whiskey traffic in the severest manner. There is no doubt as to where Mr. Lee stands on this question, and he never lets an opportunity pass without hitting the saloons a heavy blow.

At the conclusion of the sermon quite a number asked for prayers and several professed to have faith in Christ.

A Good Woman Gone.

News received here this morning brings the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Eliza J. White, wife of I. J.
White, Esq., member of the last legislature from Randolph county, which occurred at her home at Trinity last night.

She was a noble, Christian woman,
a member of the M. E. church, South, and will be missed by all who knew her.

BUSINESS IMPROVING.

Col. Carr Talks Hopefully of the Business Outlook.

Col. Julian S. Carr, Durham's millionaire-philanthropist, passed through Greensboro this morning on his way home from Richmond, where he had been looking after some business interests.

A TELEGRAM man got a few words with him between trains at the Southern depot. Col. Carr is looking at things on the bright side these days, and expresses himself as being well pleased with the business outlook. He says he is one of the staunch Southern Democrats who see a brighter day dawning for our country. The revival of old industries and the opening of new enterprises, together with the large number of prospectors who are continually coming South, argue well for our section.

The Colonel, in addition to his immense tobacco interests, is largely interested in hosiery mills, cotton mills and other manufacturing enterprises, and he says that all branches of his business are looking up.

THE TOURNAMENT IS OVER.

It Was the Largest One Ever Held— Our Boys at Home Again.

Our fire boys and the visitors returned from Fayetteville last night on the "Firemen's Special," which arrived at 11:45. The trip was made in three hours and must have been a most delightful one.

The afternoon races, which come under the head of the Inter-State contests were postponed on account of rain till 4:30.

The first races on the program were the hose wagons. The first prize was won by the Delgar Hose Company, of Sumter, S. C., making the 200 yard run in 37 1/2 seconds. Greensboro did not enter this contest, nor the quick steaming contest, which took place at 8 p.
m. yesterday. The first prize was won by the Atlanta, of Newbern.

The Inter-State hand hose reel races were postponed till Friday morning.
There was a protest in the championship race, which was decided in favor of the Atlantic, of Newbern.

The firemen are all loud in their praise of the Fayetteville firemen, and especially of President McNeill.

This was, by far, the largest tournament ever held, and was a success in every respect.

WHAT IS THE GOOD OF IT?

It strikes us as distinctly unfortunate that the discussion of higher education in North Carolina should have taken the tone which has marked and marred it recently. If there be one kind of discussion, more than another, that should be conducted with courteous reasonableness, on both sides, it is this. Touching, as it does so intimately, what is essential to the welfare of the State it should be approached calmly and dispassionately. And yet we find that, in almost every instance, the more prominent parties to the discussion have brought into it passion if not venom. High in its very nature, it has been brought to the low plane of personalities. This problem, the correct solution of which will go so far toward solving all others, is made an occasion for calling names and bandying epithets. Even the Charlotte Observer, usually so clear and dispassionate in debate, whatever the topic, comes perilously near to the same lapse.

The question suggests itself, if this be the temper of mind that our higher education imparts, is it higher education at all? If the most that our colleges can teach a man is to abuse where he can not convince, then they should raise themselves a little higher still. There are yet loftier reaches that they may climb, with benefit to all parties concerned.

The people are not slow to note the traits that have cropped out in this discussion. They will draw their own conclusions, and those conclusions will not be favorable to higher education. If the present contest is to continue in its present spirit the sooner it closes the better. It is doing, and has already done, positive harm to the cause of education in the State. That, we can ill afford. It has engendered prejudices and begotten animosities that will outlast this generation. Its direct tendency is to warp the minds of those now at the various institutions interested, and the tendency will be cumulative: The future graduate, if this unhappy business is to go on, will be a mere partizan of the college from which he holds a diploma instead of being an evangel of a broader enlightenment.

Unless we are grievously in error, some of these champions are playing fast and loose with forces that are better left dormant; forces that it is comparatively easy to set in motion, but difficult to control. It were best to be a little more deliberate. A man has need to be very careful of his ground before he puts himself in a position to be justly charged with standing in the way of the advance of enlightenment.

Rome was not built in a day, and this problem of higher education will not be settled in a day—and it will never be settled at all on the line of present attempts.

THE New York Sun in speaking of the last presidential campaign says that the "task of holding the ground so providentially won is different." "Providentially won" is good. Marcus Aurelius has plenty of that same providence left over that he proposes to distribute in the Ohio campaign this year.

It is reported that the Russians have found gold in Kamchatka. We have always felt that some compensation was due a locality so designated.

OUR reader will doubtless be interested and delighted to learn that a new type of skate has been patented.

THE Palmetto statesman with pitchfork proclivities has been telling his constituents how the galleries always fill when he takes the floor in the Senate. A little cheap reflection would show him that the same result could be achieved by John L. Sullivan or a brace of bull pups with a mutual thirst for gore.

STATE NEWS.

Lexington will have a bicycle tournament on the first of September.

The Durham Sun says there is a good deal of gambling going on in Durham.

Col. John C. Wilkerson, a prominent citizen of Durham, was buried yesterday.

The Madison Observer tells of the shooting of one negro by another over a game of cards.

Collector Harkins appointed Augustus C. Patterson, of Asheville, Deputy Collector yesterday.

The Durham papers contain daily reports of robberies or attempted robberies that are going on in that town.

Applicants for license to practice law in North Carolina will be examined by the Supreme court on Monday, Sept. 27.

It is stated that an attempt is being made to organize a stock company to buy all the agricultural papers in the State.

The dispensary at Louisburg is gaining favor with the people in Franklin. It did $600 of business during the first month.

The Biblical Assembly is in session in Asheville. The first lecture of the Assembly was in the Baptist church last night.

The barns, stables and horses belonging to the Wake County farm have been destroyed by fire. The loss is $3,000, with only $300 insurance.

James W. Buchanan, of Asheville, has left for the Klondyke, following E. E. Hunt, of the same place, who left some days ago for the same destination.

It is said that nearly every vehicle and horse in the Twin-City has been engaged for the Friends' Yearly meeting at High Point, next Sunday.—Sentinel.

The burglars who have been working various towns in the State have struck Raleigh. They committed several petty burglaries carrying off money and goods.

The Baptist female university, of Raleigh, will open next autumn and with over 300 students. There is great satisfaction among the denomination at this admirable beginning which is in sight.

Dr. W. S. Black was buried in Raleigh yesterday with Masonic honors, a large concourse of people attending. Dr. Jesse Cunningham conducted the funeral services, assisted by several prominent divines of the Methodist church.

The tax valuation of all the railroad and steamboat and telegraph property in North Carolina, as fixed by the Railroad Commission, is $29,157,099.23. Last year it was $26,576,096.99; or an increase this year of $2,584,002.24 over the 1896 valuation.

Madison Observer: We learn that the case of Martin Roberts for seduction, tried at Wentworth last week, resulted in the jury bringing in a verdict of guilty after a long trial. And the Judge's sentence was twelve months in jail. But Mr. Roberts took an appeal and gave $1,000 bond for his appearance at next court.

George Vanderbilt, who already owned over 100,000 acres of land in the Blue Ridge country, has purchased 4,000 more at the head waters of the Swannanoa river. It is magnificently timbered. He will cut the "ripe" timber and send it to his saw mill at Biltmore. He is the largest individual land-holder in the State. His entire property is being made an object lesson.

Mandamus proceedings are to be had before Judge Bryan in Northampton county to test the right of the commissioners of that county to refuse to issue liquor license. The law as amended by the last Legislature is pretty generally construed as giving county commissioners the right to issue liquor license under any circumstances if a majority of the board so decide, and in a number of counties licenses have been refused.

Editor Bailey, of The Baptist Recorder, who is one of the leaders in the movement for the special tax in aid of public schools, said today: "The plan of our committee has all the while been to try to carry 100 townships. The prospect is we will carry a majority of that number. We have advices which show that we will carry townships in Person, Granville, Wake, Northampton, Richmond, Guilford, Alamance, Wayne, Surry, Stokes, Yadkin, Iredell, Mecklenburg, Swain, Buncombe, Madison and Davie. We sent out the last of our literature today."—Messenger.

The Asheville Gazette says that up to Monday about 200 bonds for brandy distilleries to be operated in this district this year had been executed in the office of the collector and the indications are that the district will have not less than 700 bonded distilleries. From Wilkes county alone there will be no less than 300 applications. The increase in the number of distilleries is due to the abundant fruit crop this season.

Durham Sun: J. H. Shelburn, of the revenue service, on Thursday, captured a complete still, in Person county, about six miles from Roxboro, that will take the prize for ingenuity and smallness. It will hold only about three quarts, yet it was complete in all of its arrangements, worm and all. It was made for use on a stove and was like a teakettle, and would turn out about a gallon a day. He intends to send it to the department, as this will make the smallest still ever captured in this State, and he has also captured the largest—one near Wilson, 465 gallons capacity. No one was arrested.

Four Million Dollars.

Capt. H. F. McCarty, a well known mining man of this place, was notified yesterday by an attorney of his brother, Prof. B. F. McCarty, of Australia, that the latter gentleman, together with four servants, were drowned last November while on a cruise in his private yacht.

Prof. McCarty was a very wealthy gentleman and leaves an estate worth $4,000,000. This vast amount is to be equally divided between Capt. H. F. McCarty, of Lexington, and his brother, Mr. E. P. McCarty, of Kansas City, Mo.

The editor was allowed to examine the papers and secure the above facts, and in our opinion there is absolutely no doubt about the genuineness of the death or the amount of fortune left.—Lexington Dispatch.

A Noble Aspiration.

General J. B. Gordon, the most prominent figure among the great survivors of the "Lost Cause" says that he will not enter the field of politics again. He says that his aim during the remaining days of his life will be to teach men to love each other. In accomplishing this purpose he will show himself greater in the eyes of God than when he lead his native Georgians in battle, or represented them in the halls of the national legislature. But in order to succeed, he must have the love of God shed abroad in his heart by the Holy Ghost.—Christian Advocate.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Sense of Truth Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations.

Religion without love is fanaticism. Religion with love is a tongue of fire. —Rev. Dr. Magruder, Methodist, Cincinnati.

Our Degenerate Senate.

The senate of the United States of America, long on the retrograde from its old time glory, has at last quite forfeited its claim upon the world's respect. —Rev. T. B. Gregory, Universalist, Chicago.

The Cardinal Sin of the Time.

The dangerous tendency of the time is the love of money. There are other tendencies of the time in which money plays a part, but this particular tendency constitutes the cardinal sin of the time. —Rev. W. S. Rainsford, Episcopal, New York.

Democracy of America.

I have myself fullest faith in the democracy of America, because I have faith in the people of America and because the democracy of this country has amid terrific trials proved its right and power to live. —Archbishop Ireland, Catholic, at Cleveland.

The Devil Controls.

The devil controls our cities. Our mayors and common councils are standing committees of grogshops. The three persons of this diabolical trinity are the liquor trade, harlotry and gambling. —Rev. Carlos Martyn of Chicago, in Chickering Hall, New York.

Manhood.

The development and progress of our race is a thought which is now occupying the minds of the best thinkers of the world. The human race can attain its real end and blessedness only in fully developed manhood. —Rev. Dr. Harcourt, Methodist, Philadelphia.

A Peril to the State.

The ballot in the hands of an uninformed voter is a peril to the state. Voters and legislators can be induced to vote for measures that they cannot understand. This is the strongest argument in favor of popular education. —Rev. W. W. Boyd, Baptist, St. Louis.

Moses Was No Poet.

Moses was not a poet, but a historian. In his last four books he tells us what he did or what he saw, while in the first he gives the history of the three patriarchs of his people, the memory of whose doings were yet sufficiently fresh. —Father John Scully, Catholic, Philadelphia.

No Class Distinctions.

In no respect deserves our country the name of new world better than in regard to the determination of the founders of our constitution to keep out and banish forever the old world's distinctions of classes and ranks and principalities and dominions. —Rabbi Gustav Gottheil, New York.

Sowing and Reaping.

A lie can never stand alone. Great effects flow from small causes. The stub of a cigar is thrown on dry grass, and prairies are fire swept, forests are burned down and towns reduced to ashes. The excesses of youth are drafts upon age, payable in later years. —Rev. W. W. Case, Methodist, San Francisco.

Those Who Go Wrong.

There is many a husband goes wrong because his wife is thoughtless. Many a boy goes wrong because his mother is not right. You force many a man to go to the grogery to get consolation which you do not give. You can influence your husband more than any preacher. —Rev. Dwight L. Moody, Evangelist, Chicago.

Iconoclasm of the Times.

If the sense of reverence and awe for the treasures of antiquity characterized our fathers, their children are the children of irreverence and vandalism. The fret and fever of modern life seem to have consumed all reverence out of man's heart, as the hot sun burns the dew upon the morning grass. Our generation has become a generation of destroyers. Nothing is too sacred for man's vulgar and profane touch. —Rev. Dr. Hillis, Central Music Hall.

Where Civil Service Falls.

There is no substitute for morality. There is no machinery that can make an honest government when there are only dishonest men to run it. Civil service is good, but even an absolute merit system, in which every official, up to and including the president of the United States, should be chosen by examination, would not insure purity in politics so long as vast wealth units wish to bribe and officeholders are willing to be bribed. —Rev. Frank Crane, Methodist, Chicago.

Take Care of the Home.

We need better homes and better fathers. God be praised for Christian homes and wives who are chaste keepers at home; who are busy nursing their children and caring for the sick and have no time to come to conventions and read essays that electrify the visiting sisters. Smash every Sunday school, scatter every mission circle, desert every church, rather than neglect the home or fail to buttress it with every help and every grace. —Rev. W. W. Landrum, Baptist, Gainesville.

Venice.

Venice is a marvel of history, with the charm of luxury ever resting upon it, seductive to the artist and most stimulating to the student, but carrying with it, both in the past and the present, something very unattractive to the moral sense and depressing to the spiritual aspirations. Here the accident and the orient meet. Both political independence and artistic excellence were earliest won by commercial prosperity. Here, in the queen of the Adriatic, we find the apotheosis of wealth. It has built a city that has endured 1,000 years, still beautiful, still strong. Its architectural permanence is as striking as its architectural beauty and grace. Bet its place in history is as shallow as the elegant canals that form its streets. —Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, Independent, Chicago.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

Newsy Notes from the Enterprising City of High Point.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Aug. 6, '97.

At the business meeting yesterday afternoon the report of the Evangelical Committee was read. The committee reported 1,193 conversions during the past year, 400 of whom have connected themselves with the Society of Friends. One thousand dollars have been expended during the year in evangelical work. For the same purpose, during the coming year, the committee recommended that an appropriation of $200 be made. This recommendation brought forth considerable discussion pro and con, but was finally approved, together with the report of the committee. A subscription was also taken up for the evangelical work throughout the State and over $250 was raised in a few minutes.

W. T. Parker reported that the money placed in his hands by the last yearly meeting for the meeting house in Washington City had been turned over to the treasurer of that fund.

There was an interesting service at the tent this morning, at which many testified for the Lord. The services were conducted by Misses Ruth Worth and Daisy Young, of Raleigh.

Miss Lizzie Balsey, one of Greensboro's most charming young ladies, is visiting Miss Mina Alexander. Miss Alexander is expecting Miss Mina Pepper, from Kernersville, on a visit tonight.

The carriers have now learned their routes, and there is no reason why every subscriber should not receive THE TELEGRAM regularly. If there is any irregularity in the delivery of your paper, please report same to this office and we will endeavor to remedy it. The papers were a little later than usual last night, owing to the fact that the train was behind time.

High Point is a dry town, but not because the people want it so. Every body is wishing for rain. Our many visitors are raising a dust in the city, and unless a few refreshing showers come by Sunday many will be kept from attending the services by the heat and dust. The heavens look very promising this morning.

W. H. Wortham passed through last night returning to Durham.

Rev. R. P. Troy and wife, of Greensboro, are in the city, attending the Yearly Meeting.

P. H. Hanes, Jr., and Wilmer H. Brandenburg, two of Winston's most popular young men, passed through High Point this morning. Mr. Hanes is off to Blowing Rock and Mr. Brandenburg goes to Asheville.

Ed Farris, who has been in Wilmington for some time in the city.

The State Printing.

It seems that Barnes Bros., of Raleigh, are doing the State printing a good deal more satisfactorily to the authorities than did the Stewarts, of Winston. It is claimed that Barnes Brothers are doing a better class of work, and doing it at a considerable saving to the State.

The job printing for the State, exclusive of that for the agricultural department and the various institutions, has, since the Barnes have had it, cost $229.43. This work under the Stewart contract, auditor Ayer says, would have cost $300. The price paid is from 19 to 24 cents per thousand ems, the work being paid for by time. This system, Mr. Ayer thinks, will save the State from $4,000 to $6,000 a year as compared with the same amount of work done by any previous State printer.

ANOTHER ROAD RACE.

Mr. Daniel Will Give a Watermelon Feast to Bicyclists.

Mr. Garland Daniel will give the cyclists of our city a big watermelon feast next Friday evening. The following communication from Mr. Daniel explains itself:

"All bicyclists, both ladies and gentlemen, are invited to attend the watermelon feast which I will give next Friday evening, at the big run, near South Ruffalo, at 6 o'clock, in connection with the road race from Van Lindley's to the big run, a distance of six miles. Three prizes will be offered—first, second and third. The boys will leave Pomona at 5:30 and will reach the run at 5:50, making the run in twenty minutes.

"I especially invite the ladies to come and see the finish and help us out on the watermelons.

"Mr. Adams will start the riders at Pomona. I wish all the ladies and boys to meet at my store ready to start at 5:30 sharp. Please be so kind as to send me your name so that I may know how many melons to purchase for the cyclists. Be sure and come. It will cost you nothing.

"The invitation is to all who ride wheels. I want all the little ones to be sure and come. Put on your bicycle suit, and if you haven't one borrow one, for I wish to have a picture of the Greensboro cyclists to put in my store, next door to Ward's drug store.

"Yours respectfully,
"GARLAND DANIEL."

Non-Suited.

The case of James O. Lambeth vs. Southern Railroad Company, which was called in the Superior Court Tuesday, ended yesterday by the case being non-suited. The plaintiff appealed.

It seems that about a year ago Mr. Lambeth got on the train at Reidsville to come to his home at Brown Summit. For some reason Mr. Lambeth failed to purchase a ticket before boarding the train, and when the conductor came around collecting tickets he offered to pay the regular price of the ticket in cash. But as it is a rule of the railroad company to make an extra charge when a passenger fails to have a ticket, the conductor refused to accept the fare unless Mr. Lambeth would pay the extra charge, which was, we think, ten cents on this occasion. This Mr. Lambeth refused to do, whereupon he was put off the train. Hence the suit.

Why Not a Telephone?

Why do not some of the progressive business men of Greensboro and High Point arrange for telephone connection? The interests of the two places are largely similar, they are near together and the cost of constructing a line would be small while the convenience of it would be very great. Both places have need of telephonic communication and the line should pay well. We believe that if some one would take the matter in hand he would experience no difficulty in getting all the stock subscribed necessary. Here is a want who will supply it?
